

STEVEN SHEN (HUANG-PO SHEN)

Web Developer

PROFILE

I'm Steven, a passionate web enthusiast from Taiwan. Born as a Sagittarius, my easy-going and curious nature blends with my penchant for creativity in the world of web development.

My journey into web development began at Tafe, where I developed a keen interest in web computing. Now, I am actively seeking a web developer role in web design, aiming to harness and apply my technical skills to real-world projects.
